STORM TEARS DOWN 150 OIL FIELD DERRICKS

Committee Is Much Against His Proposal

WASHINGTON, May 21.—By vote of 10 to 6 the Senate Argiculaural Committee rejected Ford's offer for Muscle Shoals. Details are not available because of the secrecy of the vote. Ford's supporters now will have a final action in a fight on the floor of the Senate.

A compromise tax bill, reducing the nation's levy $472,620,000 annually, was agreed upon by House and Senate conferees. This practically assures its final adoption in both houses by the end of the week. If President Coolidge signs the measure the first effect will be a 25 per cent cut in all taxes on 1923 incomes, payable this year.

SECTION HELPED BY BENEFICIAL RAIN LAST NIGHT

Almost an inch and a half of rain accompanied by heavy winds visited this section Tuesday night. In the oil field, the elemental disturbance reached the proportions of a storm, tearing down around 150 oil field derricks, according to estimates made early today. As far Northwest as the wildcat on the Moody at Tehuacana, the wind was effective in levelling derricks.

Inside the city, evidences of the heavy wind were also noted. A large tree on the west side of the R. B. Bass home on North McKinney St. and trees in other parts of the city were uprooted. Some wires were also torn down. About 9:00 o'clock the lights went out in the city, coming on again at about 11:00 o'clock.

Limestone Former Soldiers To Secure Huge Sum By Virture of Bonus Measure; Nowlin Post Ready To Help Local Lads

Construction of More Buildings At Texas Uni.

AUSTIN, Texas, May 21.—Construction will start within the near future on the $250,000 dormitory for University of Texas freshmen girls, made possible by a bequest of Major George Littlefield. The dormitory will be known as the Alice P. Littlefield Dormitory, in honor of the widow of Major Litlefield. The foregoing information has just been disclosed by H. A. Wroe, trustee of the Littlefield estate.

H. M. Greene, University of Texas architect, has been directed by the Varsity board of regents to prepare plans and specifications for the three-story brick dormitory, which will accommodate 150 freshmen girls. According to Mr. Wroe, Mr. Greene was instructed to start work immediately on the plans, and it is expected they will be submitted to the board at an early meeting.

Mr. Wroe states that the dormitory will be located on Whitis Avenue between Twenty-fourth and Twenty-sixth streets. It is entirely possible that the dormitory will be erected at Whitis and Twenty-fourth, on the building site just east of the Littlefield home, now occupied by Mrs. Littlefield.

With the completion of the Alice P. Littlefield Dormitory and the Mehtodist Dormitory, the University of Texas will have dormitory accommodations for close to one thousand girls.

In connection with the news of the dormitory construction, Mr. Wroe stated that work would start by Jan. 1, 1925, on the $250,000 Littlefield Memorial Arch to be erected at the south entrance of the Varsity campus. Statues of Woodrow Wilson, Jefferson Davis, Albert Sidney Johnson and Abraham Lincoln, all of which will be placed in the arch, are now being housed in the lobby of the American National Bank here. Mr. Wroe stated that within the next few weeks the statues of Jim Hogg and John Reagen would arrive in Austin and would also be placed in the American National Bank.

Indianapolis, May 21.—Assailing the democratic party for attempting to make political capital out of the oil scandal, Senator James E. Watson vigorously defended the Harding-Coolidge administration in sounding the keynote in the Indiana campaign before the opening of the republican state convention. He charged that the democrats wasted billions during the war. He defended the Mellon tax plan and made no reference to the Ku Klux Klan.

Post Commander Owen F. Watkins of the American Legion of this city invites every veteran in Limestone County and in this part of Texas to affilliate with the Nowlin Post of the Legion at once.

It is poined out that although membership in the organization is not necessary to secure the bonus recently decided upon, but still membership in the American Legion will be very helpful, to the individual in presenting his claims clearly and promptly before the proper authorities at Washington.

The ex-soldiers of Limestone County probably number 500 at this time. Considering that each is entitled to $300, a conservative estimate is that

12 In. Line Being Laid by Humble Co.

The Humble Oil and Refining Co. is laying another pipe line which will assist in carrying the production from the Sanders tank farm about four miles northwest of Mexia to their pumping station some distance below Groesbeck. The line is twelve inches in diameter and is being laid along the same route which is followed by two 8 inch lines already laid. It has been connected with the main line to Houston at Groesbeck and is about eighteen miles long. The work of laying it has already been finished and workmen are now engaged in covering it.

Work of strengthening the dam at Springfield has been finished, along with other work to conserve the city's water supply. The water is four feet nigher in the lake than it has ever been before. R. D. Morgan has reported to Mayor Watson and the City Commissioners, W. E. Wilson and Rex Forrest, that the lake now impounds about 100,000,000 gallons of water. This, the Mayor states, is the equivalent of a three months supply for the city. But this is not being touched as the flow from the springs is said to be adequate to supply Mexia's needs at this time.

Material is being assembled on a corner lot at the Northeast intersection of Ross Avenue and Sumpter street for the home of Dr. and Mrs. Z. T. Goolsby. This is to be another fine home, marking Mexia's substantial growth and lending attractiveness to the city.

Materjal is moving to a lot on the Northwest corner of Hopkins and Canton street for the handsome home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hearne. The structure will be built in one of the most popular parts of the residential district and will be quite a contribution to the growing city.

CONGRESS WANTS TO GET HOME FOR SUMMER

By PAUL R. MALLON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, May 21.—Congressional leaders today saw but one obstacle to adjournment on June 7, and that was enactment of a farm relief measure satisfactory to Middle Western Progressives.

Confident that the tax bill as revised by the conferees will be signed by the President, the dictators of policy of all factions agreed to disregard the clamor for other legislation and get away for the summer.

Progressives will aid in this move by dropping their fight for repeal of the rate-making section of the present railroad law, one of the main points in their legislative program.

With this decision the farm relief ball started rolling in both houses. While the House had the McNary-Haugen measure under consideration, Senator Norris in the Senate announced that he would move, probably today to take up his Norris Sinclair agriculture bill.

Here is how the leadgrs of the factions feel about the outlook now:

Senator Robinson, Democrat—"The chances for adjournment June 7, are very good. I see no objection from the Democratic side except from a few Senators who want action on some special legislation."

Senator Brookhart, Progressive—"If a good farm relief bill is passed we will have no objection to adjournment. The President would not sign any repeal of the rail law and so it seems useless to press our fight upon that now and force Congress to remain through the summer."

Senator Curtis, Republican—"The Senate is a very peculiar legislative body and nobody can tell what it will do next but I see no present objections to adjournment."

These seatements take into account the demands of the Ford Muscle Shoals offer for action before adjournment. The world court group announced intention of forcing a vote upon that issue and declarations by numerous Senators that they intend to call up their special bills.

Prayer meeting services will be held tonight at all local churches. The attendance of the public is urged at these services.

"For Mexia, I WILL"

A GROWING PARKING PROBLEM

The subject of parking automobiles in Mexia is rapidly becoming a problem. So many local establishments extend their ownership of their premises to include reservation of portions of the curb in front that quite a bit of space is barricaded from the public. It has been said that some business men, with signs in front of their own stores "Don't Park Here", will drive to another place along the street and park their own cars in front of someone else. This they do and never think how it looks. Of course, drug stores and confectioneries feel that they have a right to place such signs as "Don't Park Here" in front of their business houses. This is done for the public as well as for the concerns themselves and the public generally expects this practice here, although it is not done in the cities. A dealer in any sort of merchandise has the right to feel that he should protect the front of his business house the same way. A general merchandise dealer could say that someone might want to stop and get a spool of thread, which customer would have the right to the same privilege as the person who drives in front of a confectionery for a cold drink. Now just what the solution is on Mexia's crowded streets is certainly open for discussion. There's argument both ways, both for and against the business house which has a sign in front reserving parking privileges for the hurried customer. At least all business men reserving space should have a permit from the city, the application for such privileges going to the City Commissioners and Mayor, and the signs should further indicate "by authority of the City of Mexia." There are at least fifteen locations between Central Avenue and McKinney Street on Commerce and between Palestine and Main streets reserved by the concerns. Under the present rule, every firm has the same right to reserve space for its customers, thus barring the entire public who own the streets from the privilege of stopping somewhere down town. By having everyone seeking the parking reservation privilege to secure a permit through official channels, the reasons at least could be placed on record and the practice justified. Fire plugs also should be protected, of course.

Then, too, when space for three cars is left between two autos, a driver should not get in the middle and hog all the space. With everyone parking as closely as possible, at least fifty per cent more parking space will be available downtown in Mexia. With crowds of visitors from all over the territory increasing daily this fifty per cent space will be a real advantage.

CITIES ARE NOT IMMORTAL

The idea of immortality has descended down the stream of human generations from the first pair in Paradise, running down every branch from the central tide, disappearing in one, corrupted in another, and becoming more lucid and satisfactory in another until we have "the present." But this was spoken of the soul and not of cities, communities and towns. Nations, states and municipalities are governed by the rule of the survival of the fittest.

It is true that immortality is seen in language, literature and manners of every age; in the history, poetry and philosophy of every people; in the rich fields and streams of Elysium, the Hesperian seas and the islets of the Red Man, and the heaven and hell of the Christian, but certainly no city is as eternal as time nor will long endure unless it actively battles "for a place in the sun" and does something to merit its continuance as a place of abode.

The ancient heathen complained that the sun went down at night and arose in the morning, but their friends went down in gloomy darkness to death and rose no more. With them the night of death was starless; there was no anticipated morning whose splendors would break in upon the darkness of the grave and hang the rainbow of hope over the ashes of bodies that had surrendered to what they termed a perpetual sleep. The Christian world today is busy effacing this impression from the human mind. Still it is conceded by the thinking person that the night of deathly inactnion to a city is starless until it comes to life again.

The point is that the Mexia Chamber of Commerce should employ a Secretary as early as possible, securing a man competent to fill the need and to see and respond to the opportunity ahead of Mexia, and thus help the city in its efforts to become a bigger, better and more progressive place in which to live and be happy. No business firm would attempt to run very long without an active head, such as a Secretary is and ought to be to a Chamber of Commerce. If it did, failure would surely soon enter and almost a miracle would be requied to save it from commercial ruin.

Editorial of the Day.

A. & M. AND COTTON MILLS.

Houston Post

One reason why A & M. college is recognized as an indispensable institution in Texas is because of its record for turning out students fitted for usefulness immediately in the lines in which they were trained. A. & M. has ever fitted for pracical service.

The invitation of Professor J. B. Bagley, head of the department of textile engineering in the college, to the cotton mill executives of Texas to send a delegation of practical cotton textile mill operators to the college to confer on the curriculum in the textile department, with the view of making it as practical as possible, is in harmony with the general policy and the traditions of A. & M.

Apparently, Professor Bagley does not conceive the mission of the textile department as one to teach theories and to show the Texas mill men new wrinkles in textile manufacturing, but he would have the department function by keeping it in close touch with the mills in operation, by knowing their needs and preparing to supply them, as well as to keep up with the new inventions and to turn out textile engineers fully abreast of the times in that healm of study.

The summoning of the mill operators to the college is timely. The movement for establishing the cotton textile industry in Texas on a large scale is well under way. The time is at hand when we are to aveh a great number of mills to manufacture our raw cotton. Many trained men will be needed to man this industry. Those we produce here in Texas will not have to be imported from elsewhere.

One reason why we are eager to build these mills is because they will utilize our greatest home product—cotton. They ought also to utilize our human product.

The textile department of A. & M. college can be of immense service to this new and growing industry in the State by co-operating with it in an advisory way, but also by furnishing it trained men for the technical positions of management.

A & M has proven its worth in aiding the production of cotton. It now has a rare opportunity to render epochal service in aiding the manufacture of the cotton our farmers produce, and Professor Bagley is moving in the right way to grasp that opportunity.

THE GOLDEN DAYS

By BEN B. HUNT

These lovely, tender, golden days
That bless and cheer like sunlit rays—
How swift they fly! and yet they stay!
No pow'r can lure them far away.
They leave with me no vain regret
When once these days and I have met.

They never die! They simply fade
In darkness and are gently laid
Adown to rest—and in Mem'ry's arms
And on her tender velvet breast,
Quietly free from all alarms!
And there these lovely days shall rest.

Then often in the starlit night
Or in a burst of spirit light
Or when life's shadow's gather low
Sweet Mem'ry brings them back again—
These days that in her arms have lain—
And thus she sets my heart aglow!

And then some crooning thought of mine
Arrests the hurried march of Time.
And Time and I with one accord
Stand there, forgetful and absorb'd,
Allured, enraptured and enthralled
By scenes this magic has recalled.

And there beneath a million stars
My heart forgets its wounds and scars,
As lifted high on magic wings
It feels the urge to higher things—
And there within my raptured soul
I know I've found life's highest goal!

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY CENTRAL TEXAS CONFERENCE

By MRS. W. B. LANDRUM

Monday evening, April 28, the delegates were officially welcomed by Mrs. E. W. Potter, who in her charming manner made us feel that Waxahachie was ours to enjoy.

Mrs. J. W. Downs, Administrative Secretary of the Western Division, was an honored guest at the Conference. She gave the inspirational address of the opening evening, emphasizing the need of the women "listening in" to the Missionary calls of the world. She paid a tribute to the individual auxiliaries, saying that the aggregate of Missionary activtites depended upon each society.

The theme for devotional study during this conference was: "The Power of the Living Christ." This was beautifully treated by Mrs. J. S. Callicut of Corsicana, and Denconess Eugenia Smith in their Quiet Hour talks.

Mrs. Downs' theme for the Quiet Hour was: "The Unchangeable Christ." She also addressed the conference on the removal of Scarritt Bible Training School to Nashville. This new and greater Scarritt will meet the overgrowing power and influence of the Missionaries from the Methodist Church in the home and foreign fields. The women of the Southern Methodist Church will have a vital part in this new Scarritt. They are raising one-half million dollars to erect a Memorial to their sainted leader, Miss Belle H. Bennett.

Mrs. J. H. Stewart, the Conference President, gave a splendid address, "A Great Woman." She gave as her slogan for the new year: "Advance," and as her motto: "It is service that dignifies and service only."

Mrs. R. W. McDonald of Washington, D. C., was another honored guest. She is the leader of the Belle H. Bennett Prayer League. The Belle Bennett Memorial is to be built on prayer as well as monetary contributions. Rev. Horace Hay with his splendid singing and Mrs. W. L. Hargrove from Texas Woman's College, with her beautiful and inspiring talk during the Quiet Hour, were special features of the conference. Deaconess Kanda Dragoo of Thurber, and Deaconess Rhena Murphy from the Wesley House in Fort Worth ably presented the great work they are doing, in Americanizing and Christianizing the peoples with whom they come in contact.

The various activities of the Conference were ably discussed by the conference officers in their reports. The conference readily accepted the additional pledge of $2,000 necessary for the completion of the Methodist dormitory being built at the State University at Austin. This makes a total of $12,000 pledged by this conference. The women of the Central Texas Conference raised $35,175.79 this year. The Mexia auxiliary played a substantial part in contributing to this fund.

Each year a "Loving Cup" is given to the district that makes the best average. This year, under the able leadership of the District Secretary, Mrs. John W. David, of Corsicana, and the co-operation of the individual Missionary Societies, the Corsicana District won the highest honors and incidentally the cup. Mexia is proud that she too was instrumental in winning it. This emphasizes the truth expressed by Mrs. Downs: "The aggregate of Missionary activities depends upon each society."

WATCHING THE SCOREBOARD

Dean, Maun and Jonnard failed to stop the attack of the Pirates and the Giants lost 12 to 3, falling into third place behind the Reds and the Cubs.

After a bad start in which he was smacked for four hits in the first inning, Vic Keen came down and the Cubs beat out the Phils, 7 to 4.

Bad weather prevented all other games.

Several students at Southern Methodist University are expected home early in June, following examinations which will start in that institution May 30. The exams will conclude June 7. Commencement day is June 10.

SECTION HELPED BY BENEFICIAL RAIN LAST NIGHT.

Weather Observer, Miss Josie Newman, the rain fall here was 1.40 inches.

The wind and rain came from the North and Northeast.

At Powell lightning struck a 55,000 barrel oil tank on the Dill tract. Only about 10,000 barrels of oil was in the storage, much of which was reported to have been pumped to safety before reached by the flames.

Derrick builders were much in demand here Wednesday and lumber companies were overrun for material as the campaign for rebuilding the derricks got under way.

The rainfall was of great benefit to the farming section, much cooler weather prevailing Wednesday.

Quite a bit of work is being done on Mexia streets at present. Red River street, leading from East Commerce street to the High Scool has been greatly improved, furnishing another drive way to the high school from the South part of town.

E. Garnett, was here Monday from Temple.

H. L. Holbert was here Monday from Waco.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—The enactment of a farm relief measure satisfactory to middle west progressives is the only obstacle to congressional adjournment June 7. Confident that the president will sign the tax bills, leaders of all factions agreed to disregard the clamor for other legislation and get away for the summer. The farm relief bill was taken up in both houses today.

DALLAS.—Protest against use of the word "undertaker" was made by B. C. Ladd, Kansas City, at the 38th annual convention of the Texas Association of Funeral Directors and Embalmers which opened here Tuesday. Ladd declared the convention should "condemn the word eternally" and substitute "funeral director" instead. Ladd advocated a fine for each member using the word during the convention, the money to go to the association treasury.

FIGHTS AND FIGHTERS

BINGHAMTON, N. Y.—Rocky Kansas, Buffalo lightweight, won a decisive 6-round decision from Eddie Jacks, England. Jacks was groggy at the finish.

NEW YORK—Eddie Burnbrook, welterweight champion of the army won a 12-round decision from Paul Doyle, New York. Burnbrook was down for nine in the second round but came up and earned teh decision.

ATLANTA, Ga.—W. L. (Young) Stribling, Georgia school boy, conqueror of Mike McTigue, easily won a decision over Dan O'Dowd of Boston, in ten rounds here last night.

Will Teach U. S. Citizens To Play In The Outdoors

WASHINGTON, May 21.—(United Press.)—President Coolidge will open the National Conference on Outdoor Recreation here tomorrow. The meeting will last through Friday and Saturday.

The conference, called by the president himself, records something new in the annals of nations—government recognition of the part that clean sport plays in promoting patriotism.

More than 125 national organizations have been invited to the conference, which hold sessions in the splendid new National Museum.

They will be asked to establish an official American policy of outdoor recreation; a definite program which will guide both congress and the president in future legislation.

Properly enough, the chairman of the conference is the son of America's most prominent exponent of the "strenuous life," Theodore Roosevelt. Col. Roosevelt, who as assistant secretary of the navy developed the details of the meeting, has provided an inspiring list of speakers.

The other members of the president's committee are Secretary of War, Weeks, Secretary of Commerce, Hoover, Secretary of Interior Work, Secretary of Agriculture Wallace and Secretary of Labor Davis.

The work of the conference will be done by eighteen committees, their members appointed from the ranks of the best known author ties on wild life, forestry, public parks, playgrounds, public health and other forms of outdoor recreation.

They will endeavor to coordinate all their activities and work to the ultimate objection, as expressed by President Coolidge, of endeavoring:

"To make available to the average American outdoor recreation with all that it implies, and to preserve our facilities for outdoor recreation for our children and for our children's children."

In carrying out that purpose the conference will consider formulation of an educational program, promotion of game preservation, correlation of private and federal agencies, and formation of advisory councils.

The Art Of Beauty

By B. M. DOUGLAS

The Appealing Blonde

THE Victorian ideal of womanhood was that of a clinging vine, and of man, a sturdy oak for the support of that vine. While standards have somewhat changed, it is still true that the clinging vine type of woman, or at least the woman who in her outward appearance preserves those charming and helpless characteristics, is a very attractive and appealing type.

We can never resist her— the winsome little blonde person, who winds herself around our heartstrings, and us around her little finger in the softest and most imperceptible way. She is as fascinating, and sometimes as irresponsible as a white Persian kitten. But it makes no difference. She possesses charm, that indescribable but perfectly definite thing that makes us lend our best blouse to a friend, our best teacloth to a neighbor, and the third ten dollars to the man who we are perfectly convinced will never return the first two. She is all softness and sweetness, and by token of the same, her dress, her hair, her jewels and her make-up should all be toned to this central theme in her personality.

This type of girl should not try to plaster her hair down severely into heavy coils, or brush it boyishly off her forehead. It should be soft and wavy and full of lights and little unexpected tendrils. Her fair skin will need naturelle powder to blend with the delicacy, and a touch of Mandarine, with its light brilliancy to deepen the blue of her eyes. Just a touch of matching lipstick. No harsh outlines, just shading out from the middle. The appealing blonde should never indulge in heavy make-up, dead white powder, mascara, or blackened eyebrows. She will lose her own soft charm and not attain the allure of the type she is imitating. She is charming in decollete, for her skin is soft and white, and her neck and arms prettily rounded. Black accentuates the blonde prettiness of this type, and pearls emphasize the innocence of her expression. The appealing blonde can wear almost any type of clothes, except the heavy, overpowering, overtrimmed type of thing. She is irresistible in sports clothes, with a soft hat pulled down over her curls and can even adopt knickers with piquancy and success.

After a course of sophisticated damsels with bored eyebrows and bleached enthusiasms, the appealing blonde.

Limestone Only County In Texas Now Opposing New Highway Act

AUSTIN, Texas, May 21.—Hamilton County has abandoned its case against the Highway Commission attacking the validity of the new motor tax act. The Attorney General signed a joint motion with the county to dismiss the proceedings in the Waco appellate court at the cost of the county. This waives all notice and service.

Only the Limestone County test case remains, and it is pending in the Supreme Court for submission. Attorney General Keeling said Tuesday that he was striving to have the case submitted and decided before the end of the court term in June.

Under Tuesday's agreement the injunction obtained by Hamilton County is to be dissolved. There was no compromise or agreement and the Highway Department was not a party to it.

BRICKLAYER A TENOR

LONDON (By mail to United Press)—Poor old Uncle Sam has been blamed ever since the war for luring away John Bull's house-building specialists. The complaint went on unmitigated until the other day, when one of the "lost" bricklayers was found to be a member of a prominent English operatic company. He is Reginald Seccell, a Hull tenor, who studied music in his spare time and finally downed trowel and mortar in favor of grand opera. He appears in the chorus.

Mount Kilimanjaro, in Tanganyika territory, Africa, is 19,000 feet high, the highest mountain on that continent. It is near the equator and is covered a third way down with perpetual smoke.

Old Teachers to Be Pensioned

SAN ANTONIO, May 21.—Teachers in the public schools of Texas will be pensioned after a certain period of service if plans launched by the State Teachers' Association through Mrs. Maude Gordon, of Houston, are successful.

The movement was launched at a recent meeting of the association held here and following Mrs. Gordon's motion to establish a permanent pension fund, the resolution was placed in the hands of the retirement committee to be worked out in detail.

A. A. Tennison, of Texarkana, was in the city Monday.

A SUICIDE AT TEN.

PARIS, (United Press.)—Four years ago Lucien Cordy, then a child of six, saw his 15-year-old brother place his father's army revolver to his temple and kill himself. The other night he felt lonesome when his mother left the house, got the same revolver and did the same thing.

Sportlights

The baseball team of the Bores class of the Baptist Sunday School is now going like smoke for the city championship. The club today will meet a strong team from Wortham.

When school is out a city league is expected to be organized in baseball circles. When that time arrives, many of the local lads are expecting to train so effectively that they will be able to beat the strong Pioneer Newsies organization.

Gene Womack's team met the Berry-Barnett team Tuesday afternoon, the former being defeated.

Mexia Gushers meet Corsicana again today. The neighbors North seem to have a powerful rabbit's foot in their pocket when they meet the Gushers, but the season is young yet.

Slyboots submitted his guess before the T. A. opened as to how the league would terminate. The standing now is just like he said it would be with the exception that Mexia was at the top. His prediction has a chance and a good one at that to come true, in full.

High School athletics under the efficient coaching of Ernest Poteet have been outstandingly successful this closing school session. He is the type of man Mexia loves to see at the head of this important department of student development. Watch Mexia High School next session.

Its about time to begin talking and writing about football again. With the games this week in Austin, Bryan and Dallas, the intercollegiate season of 1923-24 will become history. The Longhorns have written their names in a blaze of glory in basketball, track and baseball, winning all the pennants in these sports. They did well in football, too. Next session will likely see them duplicate their feats of this year in everything. In football Stewart's warriors will face obstacles again in S. M. U., Baylor and Texas A. & M.

Where's that baseball team that the Young Men's Bible Class of the First Methodist church talked about the first of Springtime? Manager Dick Wagner, how about it?

LYNCH DAVIDSON WILL ATTEND CONVENTION AT WACO, MAY 27TH.

GOLDTHWAITE, Texas, May 20.—"Now is the time for all good people to come to the aid of their Party," or words to that effect, was the way Lynch Davidson urged the Texas democrats to attend the State Convention at Waco during the course of his address here this afternoon in behalf of his gubernatorial candidacy.

"Whether you are a delegate or not, all you democrats ought to be there," continued Lynch Davidson. "I am going to be there, not as a delegate, nor as a candidate, but as a democrat, because I could not let such a party convention go by without attending and mingling with the other democrats of Texas."

He extended the "democrats of Texas" an invitation to meet him there, saying "Let's get together as democrats, talk democracy, and live democracy, for that short time. I always look upon a Texas Democratic Convention as an assembling point for reaffirmation of principles and pledges to a great party. I will expect everyone of you to be there in that Raleigh Hotel lobby. If I beat you there, look me up. If you get there first, I will look you up. But let's all be there just for the downright good it will do us."

Lynch Davidson said there wouldn't be any Lynch Davidson for Governor rally speech making, or anything else. "The less of candidates at this convention and the more democracy, the better it will be for all of us," he concluded.

KINDERGARTEN PUPILS ENJOY LAST PICNIC

The Kindergarten pupils of Misses Maude De Long and Emma Reynolds enjoyed a picnic last Friday, the closing event of a session which proved most successful and pleasing to patrons and pupils alike. Parents were very much gratified over the success of the session. Considerable sickness among children hampered the attendance of the kindergarten during the last few months. The parents of the little fellows are anxious that Misses De Long and Reynolds continue their services next year. Among the pupils, most of whom attended the picnic, were: James Propp, Doris Allen, Fred Hall, Clyde Le Verne Mason, John Garland Adair, Benjamin Howard Allen Hatch, Jr., Nahoma Tinsley, Billie Burke, Gene Reichman, J. W. Vinson, Doris Dale Rollins, Laura Cress, Robert Ellington De Long.

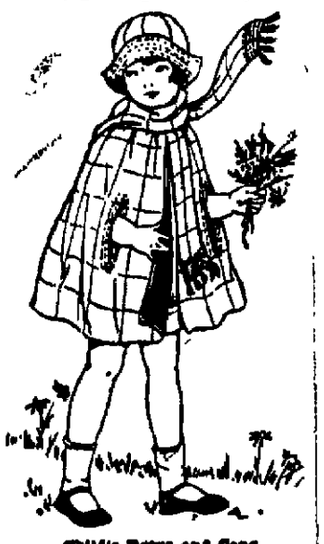
A Pleasing Little Style



Child's Dress and Cape

Simple treatment and materials of good quality distinguish this model, consisting of a dress and cape. The cape has a scarf collar, which stamps it as a fashionable Paris design.

This little outfit is quite complete since it comprises both a dress and a cape. A round yoke and cape sleeves are distinguishing features of the dress, which may be developed in voile, crepe de chine or linen. The cape is gathered and finished with a scarf collar. For four-year size, one and five-eighths yards of material 36 inches wide will be needed for the dress and one and one-half yards for the cape.

The cape is lined with either silk or crepe de chine and Fig. I shows the corresponding openings in the cape and lining, with the edges turned back. A is the coat itself, the lower edge turned up and catch-stitched all around. This hem should not be too wide, yet it should be deep enough to supply a strong foundation for the cape, which is hemmed down to it.

The edges of the lining are turned under in the same way, but they are only basted, as shown in B. Turn the corners neatly, making a miter at each lower edge. In order to make the cape fitted for real service, it is well to bind both the arm-opening in the cape and the lining separately, using self-material, as shown in Fig. II. Then pin both openings together evenly—the opening of the cape exactly over the opening of the lining—baste, then stitch around with several rows of machine stitching or with a simple embroidery stitch.

These little cape and dress outfits

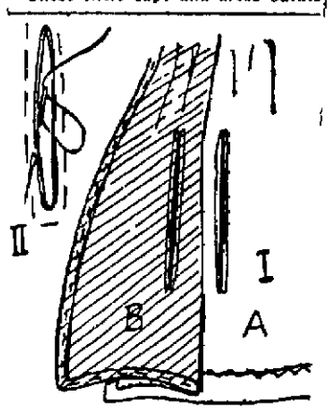


Fig. I—Showing corresponding slashes in cape and lining.

Fig. II—Slip-stitching edges together. A, inside of cape; B, inside of lining.

are stylish for tots made either in one material or in contrasting fabrics. Frequently they are shown in two tones of one color, with the lining of the cape introducing still a third tone, thus making a gradual tone of color which is very pleasing.

BASIS OF ALL LAW

Nowhere in all the centuries of recorded speech will one find so brief and comprehensive a summary of the moral obligations, due from one man to another, as is written in he Ten Commandments. They form the basis of all law, written and unwritten, that has ruled and guided mankind from the time of Hammurabai until the present. A disregard of these is responsible for the holocaust resultant from all wars.

Leading thinkers of the world are advocating assiduous Bible reading, not strictly from the religious standpoint, but from the law of balances—to form the flux of thought, from thoughts of strife and horrors to thoughts of peace.

Leading schools and newspapers throughout the country are advocating active campaigns to this end, and this paper is glad to be one of the first to give its readers additional chances to help swing the world around to its proper moorings. Tie in on right thinking by continued reading of what for centuries has been the best of reading. Get the latest and most convenient Bible printed. # THE MEXIA DAILY NEWS
Bible Distribution

Following the most distressing period of unrest the world has ever known, comes a world-wide revival of Bible reading, which must tend to ameliorate the unrestful conditions of mankind. To encourage such an end, leading newspapers throughout this country have joined forces to promote the distribution of the great Book of Books, and have adopted a plan that should readily place the Bible in the hands of every reader. Two exclusive editions have been chosen for this purpose—first, the famous large print Red Letter Bible, illustrated herein, and a beautiful plain print, medium large type edition that will be distributed for a nominal sum.

The Question of the Universe

This Bible—this miraculous Bible—this Book of All Books—luminous with the light that dwelleth not on land or sea—this noblest and most beautiful Thing in all the world—what is it—whence cometh it—what means it?

It has made and unmade Nations. It has uprooted Kingdoms and Empires. It has diverted the mighty tides of History. It has crumpled ancient Faiths and Superstitions. Because of it fell Pagan Rome. The antique Systems of India and the Far East have bowed their heads to its enlightened sway.

China and the Orient now first awaken from their sleep of thrice a thousand years, and follow their sister nations of the Occident—whose feet are guided by one sole lamp—the sacred flame of which was kindled by the inspired Hebrew Prophets, and fed for all time by the Lord and Master of the Golden Rule.

Only ignorance scoffs at the Bible! The greatest rulers—the greatest statesmen—the greatest scholars—writers—orators—scientists—soldiers—and the untold millions of the Common People, whose collective genius outweighs them all—have thrilled to its Divine Wisdom.

Its lyrics of unfathomable tenderness—its orations of compelling potency—its contemplative prose of preternatural grandeur—have never been equalled. Its emotional depths and its intellectual heights make it it the one and only Book of Books, vouchsafed for the guidance of mankind throughout the ages.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION
THE STATE OF TEXAS

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Limestone County—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded, that you summon, by making publication of this citation in some newspaper published in the County of Limestone if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the Judicial District; but if there be no newspaper published in said Judicial District, then in a newspaper published in the nearest district to said Judicial District for four weeks previous to the return day hereof, B. D. Flickinger whose residence is unknown, to be and appear before me, a Justice of the Peace in and for Limestone County, at a regular term of the Justice's Court for Precinct No. 4 of said County, to be begun and holden at my office in Mexia on the 10th day of June, 1924, at ten o'clock A. M., to answer the complaint of Rogers Mercantile Company in a certain suit therein pending, in which Rogers Mercantile Company is Plaintiff, and B. D. Flickinger is Defendant.

Filed on the 26th day of April, A. D. 1924, and numbered on the Docket of said Court No. 739, the nature of the Plaintiff's demand being in substance as follows: On July 14th, 1923, at the instance and request of Defendant the Plaintiff took defendant's note in the sum of $44.50, due thirty days after date, said note providing for ten per cent attorney's fees if placed in the hands of an attorney for collection. Plaintiff says further that he placed the note in the hands of Keys & Mason, attorneys, for collection, agreeing to pay them the ten per cent attorney's fees provided for in the note, the same being reasonable attorney's fees; that the note is now past due and unpaid, and that Defendant, though often requested, has hitherto failed and refused, and still refuses, to pay the same or any part thereof, to Plaintiff's damage in the principal sum of $44.50.

Wherefore, Plaintiff prays that the Defendant be cited to appear and answer this suit; that he have judgment in the principal sum of $44.50, interest, attorney's fees and costs of suit, and for such other and further relief, general and special, in law and in equity, to which he may be justly entitled.

Herein fail not, but have then and there before said Court, at said regular term, this Writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand, this 26th day of April, A. D., 1924.

O. KENNEDY,
Justice of the Peace,
Precinct No. 4 Limestone County, Texas.

Limestone Former Soldiers to Secure Huge Bonus Sum

they will receive a quarter of a million dollars.

The Nowlin Post is the only active Legionnaire organization in the county. The highest membership yet registered in the post here was aronnd 225 members.

To determine the amount of bonus to which a former soldier is entitled, figure up the number of days in service. For each day of home service above the first 60 days service credit, and for each day $1 will be allowed in adjusted service credit, and for each day of oversens service, above 60 days, $1.25 will be given.

If this adjusted service credit doesn't amount to more than $50, it will be paid in cash. Otherwise an insurance policy will be given. The approximate value of this policy may be determined by adding 25 per cent to the amount of credit due, and multiplying the total by 2 1-2.

Thus if a veteran served 400 days at home after the first 60 days he would be entitled to a policy value at $100 plus $100, (25 per cent of the amount,) multiplied by 2 1-2, or $1250.

The Legion here will be glad to give any help desired by those entitled to the bonus.

Three government departments are already at work on the prodigious task of preparation to pay the veterans.

The war and navy department began search of acres of records and scrutiny of millions of papers while the Veterans' bureau, which will issue the bonus certificates began to whip its administrative machinery into shape.

The war department has by far the greatest task, with files of 5,250,000 possible claimants to go through. The navy department fares more easily with only 551,736 enlisted men, 11,880 women yeomen and 80,000 marines to cope with. Of all these, it is estimated 3,127,860 will get some form of bonus.

Based on an estimate of 30,000 record applications handled in a day, nine months will be necessary for the army to go through its records. As the bonus is not effective until Jan. 1, payments should begin promptly on that day. Arrangements have been made to distribute application blanks through postoffices, the American Legion, various military headquarters and civic societies.

Finger prints will be required on the blanks for checking against the inky smudge made at the time of enlistment.

The war department issued the following list of "don'ts" to veterans, which it says if followed will speed up the work:

1 Do not write for application blanks. They will be distributed as soon as prepared.

2 Read instructions carefully.

3 Do not pay fees other than notary charges required in certain cases.

4 Do not write the war department for information required on the blank. Do the best you can from memory.

5 Mail applications in the envelopes which will be distributed with the blanks.

Called Meeting Masonic Lodge

Springfield Lodge No 71 A. F & A. M will meet in called session at 5 o'clock this afternoon for work in the F. A degree, and will continue work until late in the evening in order to catch up with the accumulated work in the degrees.

More Light on The Subject

Fridwell's Grocery and Market is undergoing some changes this week. A skylight has been put in just in front of the meat counter, that sheds more light inside and enables the customer to see better what he is buying, and at the same time makes a better looking interior. After some painting is finished the place will have an entirely different look—for the better.

WACO TRADE TRIPPERS DUE AT NOON THURSDAY

Word comes from Waco that the automobile men of that city are lining up fine for the trade trip Thursday which will bring them to Mexia and other parts of the Mexia trade territory. The trippers will especially advertise the Cotton Palace. They will reach here about noon, according to advance letters sent to Mayor Watson and others of this city.

J. K. Hughes and W. V. Crawford, the latter of Waco, are in Austin today, representing this senatorial district, where plans are to be considered for the Texas Centennial celebration. Mrs. Hughes accompanied Mr. Hughes.

Henry Ford's Muscle Shoals Offer Is Rejected

STORM TEARS DOWN 150 OIL FIELD DERRICKS

Committee Is Much Against His Proposal

WASHINGTON, May 21.—By vote of 10 to 6 the Senate Argiculaural Committee rejected Ford's offer for Muscle Shoals. Details are not available because of the secrecy of the vote. Ford's supporters now will have a final action in a fight on the floor of the Senate.

A compromise tax bill, reducing the nation's levy $472,620,000 annually, was agreed upon by House and Senate conferees. This practically assures its final adoption in both houses by the end of the week. If President Coolidge signs the measure the first effect will be a 25 per cent cut in all taxes on 1923 incomes, payable this year.

Mrs. George Peyton has returned from Louisiana where she spent several days recently on a visit with her sister and other relatives.

SECTION HELPED BY BENEFICIAL RAIN LAST NIGHT

Almost an inch and a half of rain accompanied by heavy winds visited this section Tuesday night. In the oil field, the elemental disturbance reached the proportions of a storm, tearing down around 150 oil field derricks, according to estimates made early today. As far Northwest as the wildcat on the Moody at Tehuacana, the wind was effective in levelling derricks.

Inside the city, evidences of the heavy wind were also noted. A large tree on the west side of the R. B. Bass home on North McKinney St. and trees in other parts of the city were uprooted. Some wires were also torn down. About 9:00 o'clock the lights went out in the city, coming on again at about 11:00 o'clock.

Prominent Waco Citizens Praise Mexia Tuesday

Mayor Ernest Watson Tuesday afternoon met three prominent Waco citizens who were spending the afternoon in this city and district and accompanied them on a tour over the city. E. Rotan, chairman of the board directors of the First National Bank of Waco, was one of the party. He has been in Texas for the past 65 years. He stated that he had not been in Mexia in fifty years. Others of the party were Messers. Hamilton and Patton. Mr. Hamilton is president of the Texas Central Railroad. They spent a delightful afternoon here and marvelled at the progress that the city reflected. They stated, in their opinion, Mexia has more paved streets than any city its size in the State of Texas. They were also greatly impressed with the handsome schools and churches of this city. The gentlemen were just on an outing for the afternoon, which they promised to duplicate again at an early date.

COUNTY COURT CLEANING UP CRIMINAL DOCKET

GROESBECK, Texas, May 21.—The County Court convened Monday for the purpose of disposing of criminal docket; there were several pleas of guilty made in open court and the first case reached for trial was the State of Texas vs. Thena Mullins charged with vagrancy. This case was first tried in the Justice Court of Mexia and was appealed to the County Court. Upon a plea of "not guilty" the issue of her guilt was submitted to a jury who promptly returned a verdict of "guilty" and assessed her fine at $100. Thena Mullins was charged with having run a house of prostitution in Mexia. The State was represented by Scott Reed, county attorney and Carl Cannon, assistant county attorney. The defendant was represented by O. F. Watkins.

The next case called was the State of Texas vs. J. W. Spurlin, charged with an aggrevated assault upon his wife. This case was submitted to Judge Kirby without a jury, and the evidence disclosed that Spurlin administered to his wife, a grey haired woman beyond middle age, a cruel and inhuman beating, from the effects of which she was confined to her bed for several days and under the treatment of a physician. At the conclusion of the evidence Judge Kirby promptly assessed Spurlin's punishment at confinement in the county jail for two years.

J. T. Bragg, of Corsicana, was in the citly Monday.

R. D. Morgan states that the work of setting up the equipment in Hughes Park began Monday. The city has laid a water line to the park and city water is now available there.

Limestone Former Soldiers To Secure Huge Sum By Virture of Bonus Measure; Nowlin Post Ready To Help Local Lads

Construction of More Buildings At Texas Uni.

AUSTIN, Texas, May 21.—Construction will start within the near future on the $250,000 dormitory for University of Texas freshmen girls, made possible by a bequest of Major George Littlefield. The dormitory will be known as the Alice P. Littlefield Dormitory, in honor of the widow of Major Litlefield. The foregoing information has just been disclosed by H. A. Wroe, trustee of the Littlefield estate.

H. M. Greene, University of Texas architect, has been directed by the Varsity board of regents to prepare plans and specifications for the three-story brick dormitory, which will accommodate 150 freshmen girls. According to Mr. Wroe, Mr. Greene was instructed to start work immediately on the plans, and it is expected they will be submitted to the board at an early meeting.

Mr. Wroe states that the dormitory will be located on Whitis Avenue between Twenty-fourth and Twenty-sixth streets. It is entirely possible that the dormitory will be erected at Whitis and Twenty-fourth, on the building site just east of the Littlefield home, now occupied by Mrs. Littlefield.

With the completion of the Alice P. Littlefield Dormitory and the Mehtodist Dormitory, the University of Texas will have dormitory accommodations for close to one thousand girls.

In connection with the news of the dormitory construction, Mr. Wroe stated that work would start by Jan. 1, 1925, on the $250,000 Littlefield Memorial Arch to be erected at the south entrance of the Varsity campus. Statues of Woodrow Wilson, Jefferson Davis, Albert Sidney Johnson and Abraham Lincoln, all of which will be placed in the arch, are now being housed in the lobby of the American National Bank here. Mr. Wroe stated that within the next few weeks the statues of Jim Hogg and John Reagen would arrive in Austin and would also be placed in the American National Bank.

Indianapolis, May 21.—Assailing the democratic party for attempting to make political capital out of the oil scandal, Senator James E. Watson vigorously defended the Harding-Coolidge administration in sounding the keynote in the Indiana campaign before the opening of the republican state convention. He charged that the democrats wasted billions during the war. He defended the Mellon tax plan and made no reference to the Ku Klux Klan.

Post Commander Owen F. Watkins of the American Legion of this city invites every veteran in Limestone County and in this part of Texas to affilliate with the Nowlin Post of the Legion at once.

It is poined out that although membership in the organization is not necessary to secure the bonus recently decided upon, but still membership in the American Legion will be very helpful, to the individual in presenting his claims clearly and promptly before the proper authorities at Washington.

The ex-soldiers of Limestone County probably number 500 at this time. Considering that each is entitled to $500, a conservative estimate is that

12 In. Line Being Laid by Humble Co.

The Humble Oil and Refining Co. is laying another pipe line which will assist in carrying the production from the Sanders tank farm about four miles northwest of Mexia to their pumping station some distance below Groesbeck. The line is twelve inches in diameter and is being laid along the same route which is followed by two 8 inch lines already laid. It has been connected with the main line to Houston at Groesbeck and is about eighteen miles long. The work of laying it has already been finished and workmen are now engaged in covering it.

Work of strengthening the dam at Springfield has been finished, along with other work to conserve the city's water supply. The water is four feet higher in the lake than it has ever been before. R. D. Morgan has reported to Mayor Watson and the City Commissioners, W. E. Wilson and Rex Forrest, that the lake now impounds about 100,000,000 gallons of water. This, the Mayor states, is the equivalent of a three months supply for the city. But this is not being touched as the flow from the springs is said to be adequate to supply Mexia's needs at this time.

Material is being assembled on a corner lot at the Northeast intersection of Ross Avenue and Sumpter street for the home of Dr. and Mrs. Z. T. Goolsby. This is to be another fine home, marking Mexia's substantial growth and lending attractiveness to the city.

Material is moving to a lot on the Northwest corner of Hopkins and Canton street for the handsome home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hearne. The structure will be built in one of the most popular parts of the residential district and will be quite a contribution to the growing city.

CONGRESS WANTS TO GET HOME FOR SUMMER

By PAUL R. MALLON

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, May 21.—Congressional leaders today saw but one obstacle to adjournment on June 7, and that was enactment of a farm relief measure satisfactory to Middle Western Progressives.

Confident that the tax bill as revised by the conferees will be signed by the President, the dictators of policy of all factions agreed to disregard the clamor for other legislation and get away for the summer.

Progressives will aid in this move by dropping their fight for repeal of the rate-making section of the present railroad law, one of the main points in their legislative program.

With this decision the farm relief ball started rolling in both houses. While the House had the McNary-Haugen measure under consideration, Senator Norris in the Senate announced that he would move, probably today to take up his Norris Sinclair agriculture bill.

Here is how the leaders of the factions feel about the outlook now:

Senator Robinson, Democrat—"The chances for adjournment June 7, are very good. I see no objection from the Democratic side except from a few Senators who want action on some special legislation."

Senator Brookhart, Progressive—"If a good farm relief bill is passed we will have no objection to adjournment. The President would not sign any repeal of the rail law and so it seems useless to press our fight upon that now and force Congress to remain through the summer."

Senator Curtis, Republican—"The Senate is a very peculiar legislative body and nobody can tell what it will do next but I see no present objections to adjournment."

These seatements take into account the demands of the Ford Muscle Shoals offer for action before adjournment. The world court group announced intention of forcing a vote upon that issue and declarations by numerous Senators that they intend to call up their special bills.

Prayer meeting services will be held tonight at all local churches. The attendance of the public is urged at these services.

East Texas—Tonight and Thursday partly cloudy.

"For Mexia, I WILL"

A GROWING PARKING PROBLEM

The subject of parking automobiles in Mexia is rapidly becoming a problem. So many local establishments extend their ownership of their premises to include reservation of portions of the curb in front that quite a bit of space is barricaded from the public. It has been said that some business men, with signs in front of their own stores "Don't Park Here", will drive to another place along the street and park their own cars in front of someone else. This they do and never think how it looks. Of course, drug stores and confectioneries feel that they have a right to place such signs as "Don't Park Here" in front of their business houses. This is done for the public as well as for the concerns themselves and the public generally expects this practice here, although it is not done in the cities. A dealer in any sort of merchandise has the right to feel that he should protect the front of his business house the same way. A general merchandise dealer could say that someone might want to stop and get a spool of thread, which customer would have the right to the same privilege as the person who drives in front of a confectionery for a cold drink. Now just what the solution is on Mexia's crowded streets is certainly open for discussion. There's argument both ways, both for and against the business house which has a sign in front reserving parking privileges for the hurried customer. At least all business men reserving space should have a permit from the city, the application for such privileges going to the City Commissioners and Mayor, and the signs should further indicate "by authority of the City of Mexia." There are at least fifteen locations between Central Avenue and McKinney Street on Commerce and between Palestine and Main streets reserved by the concerns. Under the present rule, every firm has the same right to reserve space for its customers, thus barring the entire public who own the streets from the privilege of stopping somewhere down town. By having everyone seeking the parking reservation privilege to secure a permit through official channels, the reasons at least could be placed on record and the practice justified. Fire plugs also should be protected, of course.

Then, too, when space for three cars is left between two autos, a driver should not get in the middle and hog all the space. With everyone parking as closely as possible, at least fifty per cent more parking space will be available downtown in Mexia. With crowds of visitors from all over the territory increasing daily this fifty per cent space will be a real advantage.

CITIES ARE NOT IMMORTAL

The idea of immortality has descended down the stream of human generations from the first pair in Paradise, running down every branch from the central tide, disappearing in one, corrupted in another, and becoming more lucid and satisfactory in another until we have "the present." But this was spoken of the soul and not of cities, communities and towns. Nations, states and municipalities are governed by the rule of the survival of the fittest.

It is true that immortality is seen in language, literature and manners of every age; in the history, poetry and philosophy of every people; in the rich fields and streams of Elysium, the Hesperian seas and the islets of the Red Man, and the heaven and hell of the Christian, but certainly no city is as eternal as time nor will long endure unless it actively battles "for a place in the sun" and does something to merit its continuance as a place of abode.

The ancient heathen complained that the sun went down at night and arose in the morning, but their friends went down in gloomy darkness to death and rose no more. With them the night of death was starless; there was no anticipated morning whose splendors would break in upon the darkness of the grave and hang the rainbow of hope over the ashes of bodies that had surrendered to what they termed a perpetual sleep. The Christian world today is busy effacing this impression from the human mind. Still it is conceded by the thinking person that the night of deathly inactnion to a city is starless until it comes to life again.

The point is that the Mexia Chamber of Commerce should employ a Secretary as early as possible, securing a man competent to fill the need and to see and respond to the opportunity ahead of Mexia, and thus help the city in its efforts to become a bigger, better and more progressive place in which to live and be happy. No business firm would attempt to run very long without an active head, such as a Secretary is and ought to be to a Chamber of Commerce. If it did, failure would surely soon enter and almost a miracle would be requied to save it from commercial ruin.

Editorial of the Day.

A. & M. AND COTTON MILLS.

Houston Post

One reason why A & M. college is recognized as an indispensable institution in Texas is because of its record for turning out students fitted for usefulness immediately in the lines in which they were trained. A. & M. has ever fitted for pracical service.

The invitation of Professor J. B. Bagley, head of the department of textile engineering in the college, to the cotton mill executives of Texas to send a delegation of practical cotton textile mill operators to the college to confer on the curriculum in the textile department, with the view of making it as practical as possible, is in harmony with the general policy and the traditions of A. & M.

Apparently, Professor Bagley does not conceive the mission of the textile department as one to teach theories and to show the Texas mill men new wrinkles in textile manufacturing, but he would have the department function by keeping it in close touch with the mills in operation, by knowing their needs and preparing to supply them, as well as to keep up with the new inventions and to turn out textile engineers fully abreast of the times in that healm of study.

The summoning of the mill operators to the college is timely. The movement for establishing the cotton textile industry in Texas on a large scale is well under way. The time is at hand when we are to aveh a great number of mills to manufacture our raw cotton. Many trained men will be needed to man this industry. Those we produce here in Texas will not have to be imported from elsewhere.

One reason why we are eager to build these mills is because they will utilize our greatest home product—cotton. They ought also to utilize our human product.

The textile department of A. & M. college can be of immense service to this new and growing industry in the State by co-operating with it in an advisory way, but also by furnishing it trained men for the technical positions of management.

A. & M. has proven its worth in aiding the production of cotton. It now has a rare opportunity to render epochal service in aiding the manufacture of the cotton our farmers produce, and Professor Bagley is moving in the right way to grasp that opportunity.

THE GOLDEN DAYS

By BEN B. HUNT

These lovely, tender, golden days
That bless and cheer like sunlit rays—
How swift they fly! and yet they stay!
No pow'r can lure them far away.
They leave with me no vain regret
When once these days and I have met.

They never die! They simply fade
In darkness and are gently laid
Adown to rest—and in Mem'ry's arms
And on her tender velvet breast,
Quietly free from all alarms!
And there these lovely days shall rest.

Then often in the starlit night
Or in a burst of spirit light
Or when life's shadow's gather low
Sweet Mem'ry brings them back again—
These days that in her arms have lain—
And thus she sets my heart aglow!

And then some crooning thought of mine
Arrests the hurried march of Time.
And Time and I with one accord
Stand there, forgetful and absorb'd,
Allured, enraptured and enthralled
By scenes this magic has recalled.

And there beneath a million stars
My heart forgets its wounds and scars,
As lifted high on magic wings
It feels the urge to higher things—
And there within my raptured soul
I know I've found life's highest goal!

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY CENTRAL TEXAS CONFERENCE

By MRS. W. B. LANDRUM

Monday evening, April 28, the delegates were officially welcomed by Mrs. E. W. Potter, who in her charming manner made us feel that Waxahachie was ours to enjoy.

Mrs. J. W. Downs, Administrative Secretary of the Western Division, was an honored guest at the Conference. She gave the inspirational address of the opening evening, emphasizing the need of the women "listening in" to the Missionary calls of the world. She paid a tribute to the individual auxiliaries, saying that the aggregate of Missionary activtites depended upon each society.

The theme for devotional study during this conference was: "The Power of the Living Christ." This was beautifully treated by Mrs. J. S. Callicut of Corsicana, and Deaconess Eugenia Smith in their Quiet Hour talks.

Mrs. Downs' theme for the Quiet Hour was: "The Unchangeable Christ." She also addressed the conference on the removal of Scarritt Bible Training School to Nashville. This new and greater Scarritt will meet the ever-growing power and influence of the Missionaries from the Methodist Church in the home and foreign fields. The women of the Southern Methodist Church will have a vital part in this new Scarritt. They are raising one-half million dollars to erect a Memorial to their sainted leader, Miss Belle H. Bennett.

Mrs. J. H. Stewart, the Conference President, gave a splendid address, "A Great Woman." She gave as her slogan for the new year: "Advance," and as her motto: "It is service that dignifies and service only."

Mrs. R. W. McDonald of Washington, D. C., was another honored guest. She is the leader of the Belle H. Bennett Prayer League. The Belle Bennett Memorial is to be built on prayer as well as monetary contributions. Rev. Horace Hay with his splendid singing and Mrs. W. L. Hargrove, from Texas Woman's College, with her beautiful and inspiring talk during the Quiet Hour, were special features of the conference. Deaconess Rheda Dragoo of Thurber, and Deaconess Rhena Murphy from the Wesley House in Fort Worth ably presented the great work they are doing, in Americanizing and Christianizing the peoples with whom they come in contact.

The various activities of the Conference were ably discussed by the conference officers in their reports. The conference readily accepted the additional pledge of $2,000 necessary for the completion of the Methodist dormitory being built at the State University at Austin. This makes a total of $12,000 pledged by this conference. The women of the Central Texas Conference raised $35,475.79 this year. The Mexia auxiliary played a substantial part in contributing to this fund.

Each year a "Loving Cup" is given to the district that makes the best average. This year, under the able leadership of the District Secretary, Mrs. John W. David, of Corsicana, and the co-operation of the individual Missionary Societies, the Corsicana District won the highest honors and incidentally the cup. Mexia is proud that she too was instrumental in winning it. This emphasizes the truth expressed by Mrs. Downs: "The aggregate of Missionary activities depends upon each society."

WATCHING THE SCOREBOARD

Dean, Maun and Jonnard failed to stop the attack of the Pirates and the Giants lost 12 to 3, falling into third place behind the Reds and the Cubs.

After a bad start in which he was smacked for four hits in the first inning, Vic Keen came down and the Cubs beat out the Phils, 7 to 4.

Bad weather prevented all other games.

Several students at Southern Methodist University are expected home early in June, following examinations which will start in that institution May 30. The exams will conclude June 7. Commencement day is June 10.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John Neece is going up rapidly on South Ross Avenue. It is to be one of the finest homes in the city and looms now most imposingly in a section of handsome homes.

SECTION HELPED BY BENEFICIAL RAIN LAST NIGHT.

Weather Observer, Miss Josie Newman, the rain fall here was 1.40 inches.

The wind and rain came from the North and Northeast.

At Powell lightning struck a 55,000 barrel oil tank on the Dill tract. Only about 10,000 barrels of oil was in the storage, much of which was reported to have been pumped to safety before reached by the flames.

Derrick builders were much in demand here Wednesday and lumber companies were overrun for material as the campaign for rebuilding the derricks got under way.

The rainfall was of great benefit to the farming section, much cooler weather prevailing Wednesday.

Quite a bit of work is being done on Mexia streets at present. Red River street, leading from East Commerce street to the High Scool has been greatly improved, furnishing another drive way to the high school from the South part of town.

E. Garnett, was here Monday from Temple.

H. L. Holbert was here Monday from Waco.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—The enactment of a farm relief measure satisfactory to middle west progressives is the only obstacle to congressional adjournment June 7. Confident that the president will sign the tax bills, leaders of all factions agreed to disregard the clamor for other legislation and get away for the summer. The farm relief bill was taken up in both houses today.

DALLAS.—Protest against use of the word "undertaker" was made by B. C. Ladd, Kansas City, at the 38th annual convention of the Texas Association of Funeral Directors and Embalmers which opened here Tuesday. Ladd declared the convention should "condemn the word eternally" and substitute "funeral director" instead. Ladd advocated a fine for each member using the word during the convention, the money to go to the association treasury.

Will Teach U. S. Citizens To Play In The Outdoors

WASHINGTON, May 21.—(United Press.)—President Coolidge will open the National Conference on Outdoor Recreation here tomorrow. The meeting will last through Friday and Saturday.

The conference, called by the president himself, records something new in the annals of nations—government recognition of the part that clean sport plays in promoting patriotism.

More than 125 national organizations have been invited to the conference, which hold sessions in the splendid new National Museum.

They will be asked to establish an official American policy of outdoor recreation; a definite program which will guide both congress and the president in future legislation.

Properly enough, the chairman of the conference is the son of America's most prominent exponent of the "strenuous life," Theodore Roosevelt. Col. Roosevelt, who as assistant secretary of the navy developed the details of the meeting, has provided an inspiring list of speakers.

The other members of the president's committee are Secretary of War, Weeks, Secretary of Commerce, Hoover, Secretary of Interior Work, Secretary of Agriculture Wallace and Secretary of Labor Davis.

The work of the conference will be done by eighteen committees, their members appointed from the ranks of the best known authorities on wild life, forestry, public parks, playgrounds, public health and other forms of outdoor recreation.

They will endeavor to coordinate all their activities and work to the ultimate objection, as expressed by President Coolidge, of endeavoring:

"To make available to the average American outdoor recreation with all that it implies, and to preserve our facilities for outdoor recreation for our children and for our children's children."

In carrying out that purpose the conference will consider formulation of an educational program, promotion of game preservation, correlation of private and federal agencies, and formation of advisory councils.

The Art Of Beauty

By B. M. DOUGLAS

The Appealing Blonde

Blanche Sweet in "Anna Christie"

THE Victorian ideal of womanhood was that of a clinging vine, and of man, a sturdy oak for the support of that vine. While standards have somewhat changed, it is still true that the clinging vine type of woman, or at least the woman who in her outward appearance preserves those charming and helpless characteristics, is a very attractive and appealing type.

We can never resist her— the winsome little blonde person, who winds herself around our heartstrings, and us around her little finger in the softest and most imperceptible way. She is as fascinating, and sometimes as irresponsible as a white Persian kitten. But it makes no difference. She possesses charm, that indescribable but perfectly definite thing that makes us lend our best blouse to a friend, our best teacloth to a neighbor, and the third ten dollars to the man who we are perfectly convinced will never return the first two. She is all softness and sweetness, and by token of the same, her dress, her hair, her jewels and her make-up should all be toned to this central theme in her personality.

This type of girl should not try to plaster her hair down severely into heavy coils, or brush it boyishly off her forehead. It should be soft and wavy and full of lights and little unexpected tendrils. Her fair skin will need naturelle powder to blend with its delicacy, and a touch of Mandarine, with its light brilliancy to deepen the blue of her eyes. Just a touch of matching lipstick. No harsh outlines, just shading out from the middle. The appealing blonde should never indulge in heavy make-up, dead white powder, mascara, or blackened eyebrows. She will lose her own soft charm and not attain the allure of the type she is imitating. She is charming in decollete, for her skin is soft and white, and her neck and arms prettily rounded. Black accentuates the blonde prettiness of this type, and pearls emphasize the innocence of her expression. The appealing blonde can wear almost any type of clothes, except the heavy, overpowering, overtrimmed type of thing. She is irresistible in sports clothes, with a soft hat pulled down over her curls; and can even adopt knickers with piquancy and success.

After a course of sophisticated damsels with bored eyebrows and bleached enthusiasms, the appealing blonde.

Limestone Only County In Texas Now Opposing New Highway Act

AUSTIN, Texas, May 21.—Hamilton County has abandoned its case against the Highway Commission attacking the vilidity of the new motor tax act. The Attorney General signed a joint motion with the county to dismiss the proceedings in the Waco appellate court at the cost of the county. This waives all notice and service.

Only the Limestone County test case remains, and it is pending in the Supreme Court for submission. Attorney General Keeling said Tuesday that he was striving to have the case submitted and decided before the end of the court term in June.

Under Tuesday's agreement the injunction obtained by Hamilton County is to be dissolved. There was no compromise or agreement and the Highway Department was not a party to it.

BRICKLAYER A TENOR

LONDON (By mail to United Press)—Poor old Uncle Sam has been blamed ever since the war for luring away John Bull's house-building specialists. The complaint went on unmitigated until the other day, when one of the "lost" bricklayers was found to be a member of a prominent English operatic company. He is Reginald Sewell, a Hull tenor, who studied music in his spare time and finally downed trowel and mortar in favor of grand opera. He appears in the chorus.

Mount Kilimanjaro, in Tanganyika Territory, Africa, is 19,900 feet high, the highest mountain on that continent. It is near the equator and is covered a third way down with perpetual smoke.

The baseball team of the Berea class of the Baptist Sunday School is now going like smoke for the city championship. The club today will meet a strong team from Wortham.

When school is out a city league is expected to be organized in baseball circles. When that time arrives, many of the local lads are expecting to train so effectively that they will be able to beat the strong Pioneer Newsies organization.

Gene Womack's team met the Berry-Barnett team Tuesday afternoon, the former being defeated.

Mexia Gushers meet Corsicana again today. The neighbors North seem to have a powerful rabbit's foot in their pocket when they meet the Gushers, but the season is young yet.

Slyboots submitted his guess before the T. A. opened as to how the league would terminate. The standing now is just like he said it would be with the exception that Mexia was at the top. His prediction has a chance and a good one at that to come true, in full.

High School athletics under the efficient coaching of Ernest Poteet have been outstandingly successful this closing school session. He is the type of man Mexia loves to see at the head of this important department of student development. Watch Mexia High School next session.

Its about time to begin talking and writing about football again. With the games this week in Austin, Bryan and Dallas, the intercollegiate season of 1923-24 will become history. The Longhorns have written their names in a blaze of glory in basketball, track and baseball, winning all the pennants in these sports. They did well in football, too. Next session will likely see them duplicate their feats of this year in everything. In football Stewart's warriors will face obstacles again in S. M. U., Baylor and Texas A. & M.

Where's that baseball team that the Young Men's Bible Class of the First Methodist church talked about the first of Springtime? Manager Dick Wagner, how about it?

LYNCH DAVIDSON WILL ATTEND CONVENTION AT WACO, MAY 27TH.

GOLDTHWAITE, Texas, May 20.—"Now is the time for all good people to come to the aid of their Party," or words to that effect, was the way Lynch Davidson ured the Texas democrats to atend the State Convention at Waco during the course of his address here this afternoon in behalf of his gubernatorial candidacy.

"Whether you are a delegate or not, all you democrats ought to be there," continued Lynch Davidson. "I am going to be there, not as a delegate, nor as a candidate, but as a democrat, because I could not let such a party convention go by without attending and mingling with the other democrats of Texas."

He extended the "democrats of Texas" an invitation to meet him there, saying "Let's get together as democrats, talk democracy, and live democracy, for that short time. I always look upon a Texas Democratic Convention as an assembling point for reaffirmation of principles and pledges to a great party. I will expect everyone of you to be there in that Raleigh Hotel lobby. If I beat you there, look me up. If you get there first, I will look you up. But let's all be there just for the downright good it will do us."

Lynch Davidson said there wouldn't be any Lynch Davidson for Governor rally, speech making, or anything else. "The less of candidates at this convention and the more democracy, the better it will be for all of us," he concluded.

HOME DRESSMAKING

By JEANNE ROLAND
(Copyright 1924 by Pen-Art Service, Inc.)

A Pleasing Little Style

Child's Dress and Cape

Simple treatment and materials of good quality distinguish this model, consisting of a dress and cape. The cape has a scarf collar, which stamps it as a fashionable Paris design.

This little outfit is quite complete since it comprises both a dress and a cape. A round yoke and cape sleeves are distinguishing features of the dress, which may be developed in voile, crepe de chine or linen. The cape is gathered and finished with a scarf collar. For four-year size, one and five-eighths yards of material 36 inches wide will be needed for the dress and one and one-half yards for the cape.

The cape is lined with either silk or crepe de chine and Fig. I shows the corresponding openings in the cape and lining, with the edges turned back. A is the coat itself, the lower edge turned up and catch-stitched all around. This hem should not be too wide, yet it should be deep enough to supply a strong foundation for the cape, which is hemmed down to it.

The edges of the lining are turned under in the same way, but they are only basted, as shown in B. Turn the corners neatly, making a miter at each lower edge. In order to make the cape fitted for real service, it is well to bind both the arm-opening in the cape and the lining separately, using self-material, as shown in Fig. II. Then pin both openings together evenly—the opening of the cape exactly over the opening of the lining, —baste, then stitch around with several rows of machine stitching or with a simple embroidery stitch.

These little cape and dress outfits

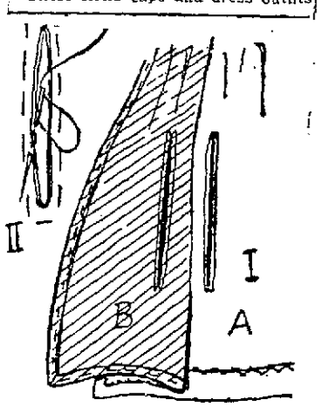

Fig. I.—Showing corresponding slashes in cape and lining.

Fig. II.—Slip-stitching edges together. A, inside of cape; B, inside of lining.

are stylish for tots made either in one material or in contrasting fabrics. Frequently they are shown in two tones of one color, with the lining of the cape introducing still a third tone, thus making a gradual tone of color which is very pleasing.

SUFFERED FOR SIX YEARS BEFORE RELIEF CAME!

But When Levi Johnson Took Tanlac His Troubles Disappeared — Is Now 73 Years Old, but Healthy and Active.

There are thousands and thousands of men and women throughout America to whom Tanlac treatment has meant revived hopes, renewed strength and energy, and a return to a state of good health that makes life a pleasure. One of these is Levi Johnson, 413 No. Walnut St., Cleburne, Texas, who says:

"Six years ago I was a man without hope. Thirty years of stomach trouble had brought me down to where neither myself nor anyone else thought I could live six months longer.

"Within two days after I started on Tanlac I felt a wonderful change coming over me. A few bottles of the medicine had me feeling as well as anybody, and it has kept me in good health ever since. I am now 73, but I can get out and work with the best of the youngsters. I owe my health and happiness, if not my very life, to Tanlac."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 million bottles sold.

BASIS OF ALL LAW

Nowhere in all the centuries of recorded speech will one find so brief and comprehensive a summary of the moral obligations, due from one man to another, as is written in he Ten Commandments. They form the basis of all law, written and unwritten, that has ruled and guided mankind from the time of Hammurabai until the present. A disregard of these is responsible for the holocaust resultant from all wars.

Leading thinkers of the world are advocating assiduous Bible reading, not strictly from the religious standpoint, but from the law of balances —to form the flux of thought, from thoughts of strife and horrors to thoughts of peace.

Leading schools and newspapers throughout the country are advocating active campaigns to this end, and this paper is glad to be one of the first to give its readers additional chances to help swing the world around to its proper moorings. Tie in on right thinking by continued reading of what for centuries has been the best of reading. Get the latest and most convenient Bible printed. Here's what the folks of Halsell Farms in the heart of the wonderful South Plains of Texas are enjoying:—

Rich soil that raises ¼ to ½ bale and more of cotton to the acre. Farmers who have been raising cotton here for three years can show this as an average. Many have done much better. Ideal climate—winters and summers temperate. Plenty of good water. Good schools and churches. Good transportation facilities. A ready market for crops and livestock—and profits!

$25 An Acre—A low price on this land where farming really pays. No more than rent would cost you elsewhere—and 15 years to pay. Settlers here are satisfied. And they are real farmers who know good soil and good opportunities. Over 200 farmers who are making homes here see prosperity ahead. Halsell Farms are situated around Amherst, Texas, on the Santa Fe Railroad.

Bible Distribution

Following the most distressing period of unrest the world has ever known, comes a world-wide revival of Bible reading, which must tend to ameliorate the unrestful conditions of mankind. To encourage such an end, leading newspapers throughout this country have joined forces to promote the distribution of the great Book of Books, and have adopted a plan that should readily place the Bible in the hands of every reader. Two exclusive editions have been chosen for this purpose—first, the famous large print Red Letter Bible, illustrated herein, and a beautiful plain print, medium large type edition that will be distributed for a nominal sum.

The Question of the Universe

This Bible—this miraculous Bible—this Book of All Books—luminous with the light that dwelleth not on land or sea—this noblest and most beautiful Thing in all the world—what is it—whence cometh it—what means it?

It has made and unmade Nations. It has uprooted Kingdoms and Empires. It has diverted the mighty tides of History. It has crumpled ancient Faiths and Superstitions. Because of it fell Pagan Rome. The antique Systems of India and the Far East have bowed their heads to its enlightened sway.

China and the Orient now first awaken from their sleep of thrice a thousand years, and follow their sister nations of the Occident—whose feet are guided by one sole lamp—the sacred flame of which was kindled by the inspired Hebrew Prophets, and fed for all time by the Lord and Master of the Golden Rule.

Only ignorance scoffs at the Bible! The greatest rulers—the greatest statesmen—the greatest scholars—writers—orators—scientists—soldiers—and the untold millions of the Common People, whose collective genius outweighs them all—have thrilled to its Divine Wisdom.

Its lyrics of unfathomable tenderness—its orations of compelling potency—its contemplative prose of preternatural grandeur—have never been equalled. Its emotional depths and its intellectual heights make it it the one and only Book of Books, vouchsafed for the guidance of mankind throughout the ages.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION
THE STATE OF TEXAS

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Limestone County—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded, that you summon, by making publication of this citation in some newspaper published in the County of Limestone if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the Judicial District; but if there be no newspaper published in said Judicial District, then in a newspaper published in the nearest district to said Judicial District for four weeks previous to the return day hereof, B. D. Flickinger whose residence is unknown, to be and appear before me, a Justice of the Peace in and for Limestone County, at a regular term of the Justice's Court for Precinct No. 4 of said County, to be begun and holden at my office in Mexia on the 10th day of June, 1924, at ten o'clock A. M., to answer the complaint of Rogers Mercantile Company in a certain suit therein pending, in which Rogers Mercantile Company is Plaintiff, and B. D. Flickinger is Defendant.

Filed on the 26th day of April, A. D. 1924, and numbered on the Docket of said Court No. 739, the nature of the Plaintiff's demand being in substance as follows: On July 14th, 1923, at the instance and request of Defendant the Plaintiff took defendant's note in the sum of $44.50, due thirty days after date, said note providing for ten per cent attorney's fees if placed in the hands of an attoreny for collection. Plaintiff says further that he placed the note in the hands of Keys & Mason, attorneys, for collection, agreeing to pay them the ten per cent attorney's fees provided for in the note, the same being reasonable attorney's fees; that the note is now past due and unpaid, and that Defendant, though often requested, has hitherto failed and refused, and still refuses, to pay the same or any part thereof, to Plaintiff's damage in the principal sum of $44.50.

Wherefore, Plaintiff prays that the Defendant be cited to appear and answer this suit; that he have judgment in the principal sum of $44.50, interest, attorney's fees and costs of suit, and for such other and further relief, general and special, in law and in equity, to which he may be justly entitled.

Herein fail not, but have then and there before said Court, at said regular term, this Writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand, this 26th day of April, A. D., 1924.

O. KENNEDY,

Limestone Former Soldiers to Secure Huge Bonus Sum

they will receive a quarter of a million dollars.

The Nowlin Post is the only active Legionnaire organization in the county. The highest membership yet registered in the post here was aronnd 225 members.

To determine the amount of bonus to which a former soldier is entitled, figure up the number of days in service. For each day of home service above the first 60 days service credit, and for each day $1 will be allowed in adjusted service credit, and for each day of overseas service, above 60 days, $1.25 will be given.

If this adjusted service credit doesn't amount to more than $50, it will be paid in cash. Otherwise an insurance policy will be given. The approximate value of this policy may be determined by adding 25 per cent to the amount of credit due, and multiplying the total by 2 1-2.

Thus if a veteran served 400 days at home after the first 60 days he would be entitled to a policy value at $400 plus $100, (25 per cent of the amount,) multiplied by 2 1-2, or $1250.

The Legion here will be glad to give any help desired by those entitled to the bonus.

Three government departments are already at work on the prodigious task of preparation to pay the veterans.

The war and navy department began search of acres of records and scrutiny of millions of papers while the Veterans' bureau, which will issue the bonus certificates began to whip its administrative machinery into shape.

The war department has by far the greatest task, with files of 5,250,000 possible claimants to go through. The navy department fares more easily with only 551,736 enlisted men, 11,880 women yeomen and 80,000 marines to cope with. Of all these, it is estimated 3,427,866 will get some form of bonus.

Based on an estimate of 30,000 record applications handled in a day, nine months will be necessary for the army to go through its records. As the bonus is not effective until Jan. 1, payments should begin promptly on that day. Arrangements have been made to distribute application blanks through postoffices, the American Legion, various military headquarters and civic societies.

Finger prints will be required on the blanks for checking against the inky smudge made at the time of enlistment.

The war department issued the following list of "don'ts" to veterans, which it says, if followed will speed up the work:

1. Do not write for application blanks. They will be distributed as soon as prepared.
2. Read instructions carefully.
3. Do not pay fees other than notary charges required in certain cases.
4. Do not write the war department for information required on the blank. Do the best you can from memory.
5. Mail applications in the envelopes which will be distributed with the blanks.

More Light on The Subject

Tidwell's Grocery and Market is undergoing some changes this week. A skylight has been put in just in front of the meat counter, that sheds more light inside and enables the customer to see better what he is buying, and at the same time makes a better looking interior. After some painting is finished the place will have an entirely different look—for the better.

WACO TRADE TRIPPERS DUE AT NOON THURSDAY

Word comes from Waco that the automobile men of that city are lining up fine for the trade trip Thursday which will bring them to Mexia and other parts of the Mexia trade territory. The trippers will especially advertise the Cotton Palace. They will reach here about noon, according to advance letters sent to Mayor Watson and others of this city.

J. K. Hughes and W. V. Crawford, the latter of Waco, are in Austin today, representing this senatorial district, where plans are to be considered for the Texas Centennial celebration. Mrs. Hughes accompanied Mr. Hughes.
